PETITION FOR WRIT OF MANDAMUS

Plaintiff, JESUS IZAGUIRRE PAZ, by and through his own and proper person and through his attorneys KRIEZELMAN BURTON & ASSOCIATES, LLC, hereby petitions this Honorable Court for a Writ of Mandamus directing the U.S. Department of Homeland Security and U.S. Citizenship & Immigration Services ("USCIS") to adjudicate a pending application for adjustment of status to permanent residency and process any and all background checks pursuant to the same, and in support thereof, states as follows:

Introduction

1. This is a civil action brought by Mr. JESUS IZAGUIRRE PAZ to compel the Defendants and those acting under them to take action on an application to adjust status to lawful permanent residency (Form I-485) filed by Ms. JESUS IZAGUIRRE PAZ with U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services ("USCIS") of the Department of Homeland

Security and on which Defendants and those acting under them have failed to take timely action.

Jurisdiction And Venue

2. This court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. section 1331 (federal question) in conjunction with 28 U.S.C. section 1361 (mandamus), the Administrative Procedure Act (APA) (5 U.S.C. § 555(b)), and the Immigration & Nationality Act and regulations implementing it (Title 8 of the CFR).
3. Under 28 U.S.C. section 1331, “(t)he district courts shall have original jurisdiction of all civil actions arising under the Constitution, laws, or treaties of the United States.” There is jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. section 1331 because this action arises under the Administrative Procedure Act (APA) (5 U.S.C. § 555(b) and 5 U.S.C. § 702), and the Immigration & Nationality Act (INA) and regulations implementing it (Title 8 of the CFR).
4. Under 28 U.S.C. section 1361, “(t)he district courts shall have original jurisdiction of any action in the nature of mandamus to compel an officer or employee of the United States or any agency thereof to perform a duty owed to the plaintiff.”
5. The APA requires USCIS to carry out its duties within a reasonable time. 5 U.S.C. section 555(b) states, “(w)ith due regard for the convenience and necessity of the parties or their representatives and within a reasonable time, each agency shall proceed to conclude a matter presented to it.” USCIS is subject to 5 U.S.C. section 555(b). Mr. JESUS IZAGUIRRE PAZ contends that the delay in processing his application for adjustment of status is unreasonable.

6. Both the regulations and the INA provide numerous examples of duties owed by USCIS in the adjustment of status process. 8 U.S.C. section 1103 states that “[t]he Attorney General shall be charged with the administration and enforcement of this chapter and all other laws relating to the immigration and naturalization of aliens.” (emphasis added). The Code of Federal Regulations further provides that “[e]ach applicant for adjustment of status under this part shall be interviewed by an immigration officer,” 8 C.F.R. § 245.6 (emphasis added); and, most importantly, that “the applicant shall be notified of the decision of the Director, and, if the application is denied, the reasons for the denial,” 8 C.F.R. § 245.2 (emphasis added).
7. The language of the statute and these regulations are mandatory, not discretionary, and requires the Defendant to adjudicate adjustment of status applications. USCIS has a mandatory duty to adjudicate applications and jurisdiction thus vests in mandamus before this Court. Iddir v. INS, 301 F.3d 492, 500 (7th Cir. 2002). Further, because USCIS and has a duty to adjudicate the application, Mr. JESUS IZAGUIRRE PAZ has a correlative right to have his application adjudicated.
8. Venue of this action is proper under 28 U.S.C. section 1391(e). The Defendants maintain offices in this district and the USCIS Office in this district is adjudicating Mr. JESUS IZAGUIRRE PAZ applications.

Parties

9. JESUS IZAGUIRRE PAZ is a native and citizen of Mexico. On or about March 22, 2010, Mr. IZAGUIRRE PAZ filed an application for adjustment of status to permanent residence (Form I-485), pursuant to section 245(a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act. 8 U.S.C. § 1255(a).

10. Defendant, MARTHA MEDINA-MALTES, is sued in her official capacity. She is the Field Office Director of the Chicago Field Office of USCIS. As such, she is the Attorney General's designate for the Chicago District, charged with the duty of administration and enforcement of all the functions, powers, and duties of USCIS.
11. Defendant JANET NAPOLITANO, the Secretary for the Department of Homeland Security ("DHS"), is being sued in her official capacity only. Pursuant to the Homeland Security Act of 2002, Pub. L. 107-296, Defendant NAPOLITANO, through her delegates, has authority to adjudicate adjustment of status applications filed with the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) and to accord lawful permanent resident status pursuant to 8 U.S.C. section 1255.

Factual Background

12. Plaintiff JESUS IZAGUIRRE PAZ is a native and citizen of Mexico. On April 27, 2010, he filed an application for adjustment of status to permanent residency (Form I-485). The basis of the application was an approved I-140 visa petition submitted by his employer.
13. On March 23, 2011, the application for adjustment of status was denied. In the decision, USCIS indicated that a Notice to Appear had been filed on the Immigration Court, and that it therefore lacked jurisdiction to adjudicate the application. Service of a Notice to Appear on the Immigration Court initiates removal proceedings against a foreign national. See 8 U.S.C. § 1229.
14. The Notice to Appear had been issued and filed erroneously. It charged Plaintiff with remaining in the United States past the expiration of his status, when in fact he remained in valid H-1B (nonimmigrant worker) status. At no point during his residence in the United States, has Plaintiff not been in lawful status.

15. Plaintiff therefore sought termination of the removal proceedings, and the Office of Chief Counsel of the Department of Homeland agreed to join in seeking termination. The Immigration Court terminated proceedings on April 1, 2011.
16. The application (Form I-485) was returned to USCIS for re-adjudication. Plaintiff was re-interviewed on the application on November 3, 2011.
17. Since the interview, Plaintiff has received no decision on the application, nor any other information, despite inquiring as to its status.

Request For Relief

18. Plaintiff has complied with all of the requirements for filing his application to adjust status to permanent residency.
19. The Defendants have willfully and unreasonably delayed and have refused to adjudicate the application to adjust status to lawful permanent residency (Form I-485).
20. The delay in adjudicating the application is not attributable to Plaintiff.
21. The Defendants owe Plaintiff a duty to adjudicate the adjustment of status application and have unreasonably failed to perform that duty by not adjudicating the application. This duty is owed under the Immigration & Nationality Act and its implementing regulations, as well as by the fact that by charging a filing fee, USCIS created for itself an obligation to process and adjudicate the application.
22. The delay is unreasonable per se.
23. Alternatively, or in addition thereto, the delay is unreasonable in light of USCIS estimated processing times and press releases which claim improved processing times and increased efficiency, and which further indicate that adjustment of status applications can be processed in less time now than in prior years.

24. The delay is unreasonable in light of the fact that USCIS has been unable to adequately respond to any of Plaintiff's inquiries on his application.
25. By making inquiring on the status of the application, Plaintiff has exhausted any and all administrative remedies that may exist. No other remedy exists to resolve Defendants' delay and lack of ability or willingness to adjudicate Plaintiff's application for adjustment of status.

WHEREFORE, and in light of the foregoing, Plaintiff JESUS IZAGUIRRE PAZ prays that this Honorable Court:

- A. Assume jurisdiction herein;
- B. Compel the Defendants and those acting under them to perform their duty or duties to adjudicate the application for adjustment of status (Form I-485);
- C. Grant such other and further relief, as the Court deems appropriate and just.

The above petition and extension of stay have been approved. The status of the named foreign worker(s) in this classification is valid as indicated above. The foreign worker(s) can work for the petitioner, but only as detailed in the petition and for the period authorized. Any change in employment requires a new petition. Since this employment authorization stems from the filing of this petition, separate employment authorization documentation is not required. Please contact the IRS with any questions about tax withholding.

The petitioner should keep the upper portion of this notice. The lower portion should be given to the worker. He or she should keep the right part with his or her Form I-94, Arrival-Departure Record. This should be turned in with the I-94 when departing the U.S. The left part is for his or her records. A person granted an extension of stay who leaves the U.S. must normally obtain a new visa before returning. The left part can be used in applying for the new visa. If a visa is not required, he or she should present it, along with any other required documentation, when applying for reentry in this new classification at a port of entry or pre-flight inspection station. The petitioner may also file Form I-824, Application for Action on an Approved Application or Petition, with this office to request that we notify a consulate, port of entry, or pre-flight inspection office of this approval.

The approval of this visa petition does not in itself grant any immigration status and does not guarantee that the alien beneficiary will subsequently be found to be eligible for a visa for admission to the United States, or for an extension, change, or adjustment of status.

THIS FORM IS NOT A VISA NOR MAY IT BE USED IN PLACE OF A VISA.

The United States Department of State, based upon a "No Objection" statement from the government of your nationality, has recommended that you and any members of your immediate family be granted a waiver of the two-year foreign residence requirement of Section 212(e) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, as amended. This recommendation only refers to the two-year foreign residence obligation which was incurred by virtue of your current or prior nonimmigrant status as a J-1 Exchange Alien. Accordingly, upon consideration of the evidence of record, and on the basis of the favorable recommendation of the United States Department of State, you, and any members of your immediate family who have become subject to the two-year foreign residence requirement solely based on their relationship to you, are hereby granted a waiver of the two-year foreign residence requirement of Section 212(e) of the Act. Please note that if any member of your immediate family has incurred an obligation to fulfill the two-year foreign residence requirement of Section 212(e) of the Act based on his or her own current or prior nonimmigrant status as a J-1 Exchange Alien, that family member will need to request a separate waiver on his or her own behalf to remove that obligation. The above petition and extension of stay have been approved. The status of the named foreign worker(s) in this classification is valid as indicated above. The foreign worker(s) can work for the petitioner, but only as detailed in the petition and for the period authorized. Any change in employment requires a new petition. Since this employment authorization stems from the filing of this petition, separate employment authorization documentation is not required. Please contact the IRS with any questions about tax withholding.

The petitioner should keep the upper portion of this notice. The lower portion should be given to the worker. He or she should keep the right part with his or her Form I-94, Arrival-Departure Record. This should be turned in with the I-94 when departing the U.S. The left part is for his or her records. A person granted an extension of stay who leaves the U.S. must normally obtain a new visa before returning. The left part can be used in applying for the new visa. If a visa is not required, he or she should present it, along with any other required documentation, when applying for reentry in this new classification at a port of entry or pre-flight inspection station. The petitioner may also file Form I-824, Application for Action on an Approved Application or Petition, with this office to request that we notify a consulate, port of entry, or pre-flight inspection office of this approval.

The approval of this visa petition does not in itself grant any immigration status and does not guarantee that the alien beneficiary will subsequently be found to be eligible for a visa for admission to the United States, or for an extension, change, or adjustment of status.

The above petition and extension of stay have been approved. The status of the named foreign worker(s) in this classification is valid as indicated above. The foreign worker(s) can work for the petitioner, but only as detailed in the petition and for the period authorized. Any change in employment requires a new petition. Since this employment authorization stems from the filing of this petition, separate employment authorization documentation is not required. Please contact the IRS with any questions about tax withholding.

The petitioner should keep the upper portion of this notice. The lower portion should be given to the worker. He or she should keep the right part with his or her Form I-94, Arrival-Departure Record. This should be turned in with the I-94 when departing the U.S. The left part is for his or her records. A person granted an extension of stay who leaves the U.S. must normally obtain a new visa before returning. The left part can be used in applying for the new visa. If a visa is not required, he or she should present it, along with any other required documentation, when applying for reentry in this new classification at a port of entry or pre-flight inspection station. The petitioner may also file Form I-824, Application for Action on an Approved Application or Petition, with this office to request that we notify a consulate, port of entry, or pre-flight inspection office of this approval.

The approval of this visa petition does not in itself grant any immigration status and does not guarantee that the alien beneficiary will subsequently be found to be eligible for a visa, for admission to the United States, or for an extension, change, or adjustment of status.

THIS FORM IS NOT A VISA NOR MAY IT BE USED IN PLACE OF A VISA.

Please see the additional information on the back. You will be notified separately about any other cases you filed.

On November 16, 2009, the Notice to Appear (NTA) was served to Executive Office of Immigration Review (EOIR) in regards to your removal proceedings. If you desire to pursue this application, you must follow all applicable procedures and regulations, including those relating to motions to reopen and applicable fees to the Executive Office for Immigration Review, located at 55 East Monroe Street, Chicago, Illinois 60603, which has sole jurisdiction over this application. 8 CFR § 274a.12(c)(9) allows an alien who has filed an application for adjustment of status to

Notice to Respondent

Warning: Any statement you make may be used against you in removal proceedings.

Alien Registration: This copy of the Notice to Appear served upon you is evidence of your alien registration while you are under removal proceedings. You are required to carry it with you at all times.

Representation: If you so choose, you may be represented in this proceeding, at no expense to the Government, by an attorney or other individual authorized and qualified to represent persons before the Executive Office for Immigration Review, pursuant to 8 CFR 3.16. Unless you so request, no hearing will be scheduled earlier than ten days from the date of this notice, to allow you sufficient time to secure counsel. A list of qualified attorneys and organizations who may be available to represent you at no cost will be provided with this notice.

Conduct of the hearing: At the time of your hearing, you should bring with you any affidavits or other documents, which you desire to have considered in connection with your case. If you wish to have the testimony of any witnesses considered, you should arrange to have such witnesses present at the hearing.

At your hearing you will be given the opportunity to admit or deny any or all of the allegations in the Notice to Appear and that you are inadmissible or removable on the charges contained in the Notice to Appear. You will have an opportunity to present evidence on your own behalf, to examine any evidence presented by the Government, to object, on proper legal grounds, to the receipt of evidence and to cross examine any witnesses presented by the Government. At the conclusion of your hearing, you have a right to appeal an adverse decision by the immigration judge.

You will be advised by the immigration judge before whom you appear of any relief from removal for which you may appear eligible including the privilege of departure voluntarily. You will be given a reasonable opportunity to make any such application to the immigration judge.

Failure to appear: You are required to provide the DHS, in writing, with your full mailing address and telephone number. You must notify the Immigration Court immediately by using Form EOIR-33 whenever you change your address or telephone number during the course of this proceeding. You will be provided with a copy of this form. Notices of hearing will be mailed to this address. If you fail to attend the hearing at the time and place designated on this notice, or any date and time later directed by the Immigration Court, a removal order may be made by the immigration judge in your absence, and you may be arrested and detained by the DHS.

Mandatory Duty to Surrender for Removal: If you become subject to a final order of removal, you must surrender for removal to one of the offices listed in 8 CFR 241.16(a). Specific addresses on locations for surrender can be obtained from your local DHS office or over the internet at <http://www.ice.gov/about/dro/contact.htm>. You must surrender within 30 days from the date the order becomes administratively final, unless you obtain an order from a Federal court, immigration court, or the Board of Immigration Appeals staying execution of the removal order. Immigration regulations at 8 CFR 241.1 define when the removal order becomes administratively final. If you are granted voluntary departure and fail to depart the United States as required, fail to post a bond in connection with voluntary departure, or fail to comply with any other condition or term in connection with voluntary departure, you must surrender for removal on the next business day thereafter. If you do not surrender for removal as required, you will be ineligible for all forms of discretionary relief for as long as you remain in the United States and for ten years after departure or removal. This means you will be ineligible for asylum, cancellation of removal, voluntary departure, adjustment of status, change of nonimmigrant status, registry, and related waivers for this period. If you do not surrender for removal as required, you may also be criminally prosecuted under section 243 of the Act.

DECISION TO DENY APPLICATION TO ADJUST STATUS

Dear Mr Izaguirre:

Upon consideration, it is ordered that your application for status as a permanent resident of the United States (Form I-485) be denied for the following reasons:

On July 20, 2002, you submitted an Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status ("Form I-485") based on an approved Petition for Alien Worker (Form I-140). Upon consideration, it is ordered that your Form I-485 be denied for the following reason(s):

Section 212(e) of the Immigration and Nationality Act ("the Act") states (emphasis added):

- "No person admitted under section 101(a)(15)(J) or acquiring such status after admission
- (i) whose participation in the program for which he came to the United States was financed in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, by an agency of the Government of the United States or by the government of the country of his nationality or his last residence,
 - (ii) who at the time of admission or acquisition of status under section 101(a)(15)(J) was a national or resident of a country which the Director of the United States Information Agency pursuant to regulations prescribed by him, had designated as clearly requiring the services of persons engaged in the field of specialized knowledge or skill in which the alien was engaged, or
 - (iii) who came to the United States or acquired such status in order to receive graduate medical education or training,
- shall be eligible to apply for an immigrant visa, or for permanent residence, or for a nonimmigrant visa under section 101(a)(15)(H) or section 101(a)(15)(L) until it is established that such person has resided and been physically present in the country of his nationality or his last residence for an aggregate of a least two years following departure from the United States: Provided, That upon the favorable recommendation of the Director, pursuant to the request of an interested United States Government agency (or, in the case of an alien described in clause (iii), pursuant to the request of a State Department of Public Health, or its equivalent), or of the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization after he has determined that departure from the United States would impose exceptional hardship upon the alien's spouse or child (if such spouse or child is a citizen of the United States or a lawfully resident alien), or that the alien cannot return to the country of his nationality or last residence because he would be subject to persecution on account of race, religion, or political opinion, the Attorney General may waive the requirement of such two-year foreign residence abroad in the case of any alien whose admission to the United States is found by the Attorney General to be in the public interest except that in the case of a waiver requested by a State Department of Public Health, or its equivalent, or in the case of a waiver requested by an interested United States government agency on behalf of an alien described in clause (iii), the waiver shall be subject to the requirements of section 214(l) 22aaa/ : And provided further, That, except in the case of an alien described in clause (iii), the Attorney General may, upon the favorable recommendation of the Director, waive such two-year foreign residence requirement in any case in which the foreign country of the alien's nationality or last residence has furnished the Director a statement in writing that it has no objection to such waiver in the case of such alien."

The record shows that that you were admitted using a J-1 visa to pursue graduate studies and that you have neither met the two-year foreign residence requirement nor been granted a waiver of that requirement.

Therefore, when you filed for adjustment of status on July 20, 2002, you were not eligible apply for an immigrant visa or for permanent residence pursuant to Section 212(e) of the Act, due to the two-year foreign residency requirement attached to your J-1 visa. You are not eligible to file for adjustment of status until a Section 212(e) waiver (using Form I-612) is approved.

Sincerely,

Donald P. Ferguson

Adjudication Officer Crome
USCIS District Office
Chicago, IL

Dear Officer Crome,

I am writing on behalf of my constituent, Jesus Izaguirre Paz, A 072-570-588. Mr. Izaguirre is a tenured Associate Professor in the Department of Computer Science and Engineering at the University of Notre Dame. He has applied for his permanent residency, and has an ongoing case with USCIS.

USCIS has recently requested that Mr. Izaguirre submit a Waiver of Foreign Residence by April 13th of this year. The basis for this waiver request is a "No Objection" letter that the Mexican Embassy in Washington D.C. forwarded to the US Secretary of State on February 17th, 2009. Mr. Izaguirre submitted a request for this waiver to the Department of State in May of 2008, but it remains in the last stage of processing. It appears unlikely that the Department of State will provide the completed waiver by April 13. Mr. Izaguirre would like to extend the deadline by a month or two, if possible, or put the case into some sort of suspension that would allow DOS sufficient time to finish the waiver process.

I request that you extend the timeframe given to Mr. Izaguirre for submitting evidence, and allow the Department of State to issue this waiver before moving on Mr. Izaguirre's case. Thank you very much for your time and consideration. Should you have any questions or concerns, please contact my case manager Mark Hoipkemier at 574-288-2780.

Regards,

Joe Donnelly
Member of Congress

The vicar in this parish, properly authorized, CERTIFIES:

That in this parish archive there is a book with the number 20 (twenty) for birth certificates for legitimate children, and that in such book, on page 328 (three hundred twenty eight), there is a certificate that literally says:

MARGIN:

"Acta No. 959 - JESUS ANTONIO"

(SEAL OF SACRED HEART OF JESUS PARISH)

CENTER:

"In the Parish of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, Colonia Estrella of the Archdiocese of Mexico City, on July 19, 1970, the Rev. Porfirio Ríos baptized solemnly in conformance with canon and civil law a boy named JESUS ANTONIO, who was born on October 20 of the month of October in 1969 in San Joaquín, Qro. The boy is a legitimate son of José Antonio Izaguirre Velázquez and Aura Hersilia Paz Rodríguez. His address was Sardónica 46. His godfather was the Rev. Don José Aguillón R., who was reminded of his obligation and spiritual paternity. I testify Aristeo G. Hernández (signature)."

This is a faithful copy taken from its original on June 2, 1992.

"I, the lawyer FERNANDO CATAÑO MURO SANDOVAL, Public Notary number SEVENTEEN of the Federal District [México City], in use of my faculties, TESTIFY: That this birth and baptismal certificate was checked against the original, the same that is in the Parish of the Sacred Heart of Jesus in this city, in the book of Baptism of Legitimate Children, marked with the number TWENTY, page THREE HUNDRED TWENTY EIGHT, where the certificate number NINE HUNDRED FIFTY NINE exists, and has been found to faithfully and exactly match this certificate. All of this is in the certificate number SIXTY THREE - FOUR HUNDRED FIFTY SEVEN, with this date that I incorporated in the juridical protocol entrusted to me.

"Mexico, Federal District, June second, nineteen ninety two. I testify.

A copy of this notice should be submitted with the application, with appropriate fee, to this Service Center. Additional information about eligibility for adjustment of status may be obtained from the local INS office serving the area where he or she lives, or by calling 1-800-375-5283.

If the person for whom you are petitioning decides to apply for a visa outside the United States based on this petition, the petitioner should file Form I-824, Application for Action on an Approved Application or Petition, with this office to request that we send the petition to the Department of State National Visa Center (NVC).

The NVC processes all approved immigrant visa petitions that require consular action. The NVC also determines which consular post is the appropriate consulate to complete visa processing. It will then forward the approved petition to that consulate.

THIS FORM IS NOT A VISA NOR MAY IT BE USED IN PLACE OF A VISA.

Decision on Motion to Reopen

Dear Mr. Izaguirre:

On July 7, 2008, the Service reviewed your adjustment of status application. The record shows that your adjustment application was denied on June 20, 2008, for failure to appear at your scheduled interview. However, on June 17, 2008, you requested to reschedule your interview through your attorney of record. Your reschedule request was approved on June 18, 2008 and your application was denied in error.

Upon due consideration of all the factors in your case the Service moves on its own motion to reopen your adjustment of status application for further processing. You will be scheduled for an interview in the near future. You will receive a separate notice regarding your interview to the above address.

Sincerely,

Ruth A. Dorochoff

NOTICE TO DENY APPLICATION TO REGISTER PERMANENT RESIDENT OR ADJUST STATUS

Dear Mr. Izaguirre:

On July 20, 2002, you submitted Form I-485 (Application to Register Permanent Resident or Adjust Status). In accordance with 8 CFR § 103.3(a)(1), you are hereby notified that it is the decision of the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) to deny the application for the following reason(s):

8 CFR § 103.2(b) (13) states the following:

"If all requested initial evidence and requested additional evidence is not submitted by the required date, the application or petition shall be considered abandoned and, accordingly, shall be denied. Except as provided in Section 335.6 of this chapter, if an individual requested to appear for fingerprinting or for an interview does not appear, [USCIS] does not receive his or her request for rescheduling by the date of the fingerprinting appointment or interview, or the applicant or petitioner has not withdrawn the application or petition, the application or petition shall be considered abandoned and, accordingly, shall be denied."

A notice was mailed to your last known address requesting that you appear for the scheduled adjustment of status interview on June 19, 2008. You failed to appear for the interview. Furthermore, USCIS did not receive a request to reschedule your appointment, or any explanation for your absence. As such, your Form I-485 filed pursuant to Section 245 of Act must be, and is hereby, denied.

A denial due to abandonment may not be appealed, but you may file a motion to reopen.

To do so, 8 CFR § 103.5(a) (1) (i) states, in pertinent part, that:

"Any motion to reopen a proceeding before [USCIS] filed by an applicant or petitioner, must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reopen, except that failure to file before this period expires, may be excused in the discretion of [USCIS] where it is demonstrated that the delay was reasonable and was beyond the control of the applicant or petitioner."

8 CFR § 103.5(a) (1) (iii) further states, in pertinent part, that:

"A motion shall be submitted on Form I-290B and may be accompanied by a brief. It must be: (A) In writing and signed by the affected party or the attorney or representative of record, if any; (B) Accompanied by a nonrefundable fee as set forth in § 103.7."

In addition, 8 CFR § 103.5(a) (2) requires that:

"A motion to reopen an application or petition denied due to abandonment must be filed with evidence that the decision was in error because: (i) The requested evidence was not material to the issue of eligibility; (ii) The required initial evidence was submitted with the application or petition, or the request for initial evidence or additional information or appearance was complied with during the allotted period; or (iii) The request for additional information or appearance was sent to an address other than that on the application, petition, or notice of representation, or that the applicant or petitioner advised [USCIS], in writing, of a change of address or change of representation subsequent to filing and before [USCIS] request was sent, and the request did not go to the new address."

A denial due to abandonment does not preclude the filing of a new application with a new fee. A denial due to abandonment shall not itself affect the new proceeding; but the facts and circumstances surrounding the prior application shall otherwise be material to the new application.

It appears that this decision leaves you without lawful immigration status and you are therefore present in the United States in violation of the law. Without a lawful immigration status you are required to depart the United States. Remaining in the United States without authorization may result in the initiation of removal proceedings against you and may affect your ability to return to the United States in the future

Sincerely,

Ruth A. Dorochoff
District Director

Re: Second Preference Petition of University of Notre Dame du Lac on Behalf of Jesus A. IZAGUIRRE

Dear Sir or Madam:

This letter is submitted in support of the Second Preference Petition for Jesus Izaguirre pursuant to Section 203(b)(2) of The Immigration and Nationality Act. The University of Notre Dame du Lac wishes to permanently employ Prof. Izaguirre as an Assistant Professor of Computer Science at an annual salary of $68,000. Prof. Izaguirre's responsibilities in this position include teaching Computer Science courses at the graduate and undergraduate levels and conducting and publishing research in this field. Prof. Izaguirre qualifies for this position based upon his Ph.D. degree in Computer Science as required pursuant to the terms of the Application for Alien Employment Certification.

The University of Notre Dame is a major educational research university that was founded in 1842 by Rev. Edward F. Sorin, a priest of the Congregation of Holy Cross. It has four undergraduate colleges, including Arts and Letters, Business Administration, Engineering and Science, with an enrollment of approximately 7,426 undergraduate students. It has a graduate school of four divisions, a graduate business school, a law school and several graduate research study centers with about 2,384 graduate students. In 1989-90, Notre Dame's teaching and researching faculty numbered 847, along with administrators, professional specialists, librarians and research fellows.

United States Dept. of Justice
Immigration and Naturalization Service
Page Two

The position of Assistant Professor of Computer Science requires a person with a Ph.D. degree in Computer Science, Computer Engineering, Electrical Engineering, or a related field.

Prof. Izaguirre is amply qualified for the position and has a Ph.D. degree in Computer Science from the University of Illinois at Urbana - Champaign. In addition, he has been employed by the University of Notre Dame as an Assistant Professor since August 1999. Prior to that, he was employed as a Graduate Research Assistant in the Department of Computer Science at the University of Illinois at Urbana - Champaign from January 1997 to August 1999. The credentials satisfy the minimum requirements for the position as set out in the "Offer of Employment" in the Labor Certification Application submitted in this case. A copy of Prof. Izaguirre's Ph.D. degree is enclosed along with a copy of his Curriculum Vitae. His approved Application for Labor Certification is also enclosed.

Prof. Izaguirre is presently in the United States in valid H-1B status and plans to file for adjustment of status to permanent resident through your office if his status is current and he is eligible to do so under Section 245 of the Act.

We feel that Prof. Izaguirre's educational and professional credentials make him extremely well qualified for the position of Assistant Professor of Computer Science on a permanent basis and, therefore, offer Jesus Izaguirre a permanent full-time position with the University.

Very truly yours,

Carol C. Kaesebier
Vice President and General Counsel

It must be submitted to the appropriate office of the Immigration and Naturalization Service within fifteen to sixty days before the expiration of the authorized period of stay.

Medical Technologists, Medical Record Librarians, Medical Record Technicians, Radiologic Technicians, and other participants in similar categories - the length of the approved training program plus a maximum of 18 months for practical experience, not exceeding a total of 3 years. Medical Interns and Residents - the time typically required to complete the medical specialty involved but limited to 7 years with the possibility of extension if such extension is approved by the Director of the United States Information Agency.

- (d) Change of Status: Exchange visitors are expected to leave the United States upon completing their objective. An exchange visitor who is subject to the two-year home-country physical presence requirement is not eligible to change his/her status while in the United States to any other nonimmigrant category except, if applicable, that of official or employee of a foreign government (A) or of an international organization (G) or member of the family or attendant of either of these types of officials or employees.

Likewise, if an exchange visitor is acquiring a skill which is in short supply in his/her own country (these skills appear on the Exchange Visitor Skills List) he/she will be subject to this same two-year home-country residence requirement as well as alien physicians entering the U.S. to receive graduate medical education or training (Section 212(e) of the Immigration and Nationality Act and PL 94 484, as amended).

2. Additional Information

GENERAL.

The filing of an application or petition does not in itself allow a person to enter the United States and does not confer any other right or benefit.

INQUIRIES.

You should contact the office listed on the reverse side of this notice if you have questions about the notice, or questions about the status of your application or petition. We recommend you call. However, if you write us, please enclose a copy of this notice with your letter.

APPROVAL OF NONIMMIGRANT PETITION.

Approval of a nonimmigrant petition means that the person for whom it was filed has been found eligible for the requested classification. If this notice indicated we are notifying a U.S. Consulate about the approval for the purpose of visa issuance, and you or the person you filed for have questions about visa issuance, please contact the appropriate U.S. Consulate directly.

APPROVAL OF AN IMMIGRANT PETITION.

Approval of an immigrant petition does not convey any right or status. The approved petition simply establishes a basis upon which the person you filed for can apply for an immigrant or fiance(e) visa or for adjustment of status.

A person is not guaranteed issuance of a visa or a grant of adjustment simply because this petition is approved. Those processes look at additional criteria.

If this notice indicates we have approved the immigrant petition you filed, and have forwarded it to the Department of State Immigrant Visa Processing Center, that office will contact the person you filed the petition for directly with information about visa issuance.

In addition to the information on the reverse of this notice, the instructions for the petition you filed provide additional information about processing after approval of the petition.

For more information about whether a person who is already in the U.S. can apply for adjustment of status, please see Form I-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status.

PAROLE: The named bearer of this authorization is an applicant for adjustment of status under the Act. The bearer departed the United States temporarily and intends to return to the United States to resume processing of the adjustment of status application. Presentation of the original of this document prior to June 06, 2011 allows a Customs and Border Protection (CBP) Inspector at a port-of-entry to parole the named bearer, whose photograph appears hereon, into the United States based upon urgent humanitarian reasons or significant public benefit. This authorization is valid for multiple applications for parole into the United States during the validity period noted above. Each parole period shall not exceed one year from the date of parole at the port-of-entry.

Conditions/comments:

ABC

NOTICE - READ BEFORE YOU TRAVEL ABROAD

Parole is not admission into the United States. Presentation of this authorization will allow a CBP Inspector at a port-of-entry to parole you into the United States, which will allow you to resume your application for adjustment of status. Parole is not an "admission," so even after your parole you will remain an "applicant for admission." If you are found inadmissible, you will need to apply and qualify for a waiver of inadmissibility. If your adjustment application is denied, you may be subject to removal proceedings as an inadmissible alien under 235(b)(1) or 240 of the Act.

Parole into the United States is not guaranteed. In all cases, you are still subject to immigration inspection at a port-of-entry to determine whether you are eligible to come into the United States via the terms of this document. Even if you have previously been granted parole, the Department of Homeland Security retains discretion to deny you parole if the Department determines approving your parole application would not serve the public interest of the United States.

Travel Warning Regarding Unlawful Presence. If you have been unlawfully present in the United States, you may want to ask an immigration attorney or a representative at an immigrant assistance organization accredited by the Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA) whether leaving the United States would make you inadmissible and therefore ineligible for adjustment of status. Under section 212(a)(9)(B)(i) of the Act, aliens who depart the United States after being unlawfully present in the United States for certain periods may become subject to new or additional grounds of inadmissibility because of their travel abroad. If you were unlawfully present in the United States for more than 180 days after April 1, 1997, you may be found inadmissible when you return to the United States. If you were unlawfully present in the United States for more than 180 days but less than one year after April 1, 1997 and then departed voluntarily before the removal proceedings, you are inadmissible for three years. If you were unlawfully present for one year or more after April 1, 1997 and then departed, you are inadmissible for ten years. Obtaining advance authorization for parole will not relieve you of inadmissibility under 212(a)(9)(B)(i).

Inadmissibility in general. If you have concerns about admissibility and waivers you should contact an immigration attorney or an immigrant assistance organization accredited by the BIA before making foreign travel plans.

Dear USCIS,

I have to drive to Michigan City, Indiana on the morning of November 24, 2008 to pick up my mother-in-law (who is 79) and take her to O'Hare for a flight to Houston where she is spending Thanksgiving with my sister-in-law and two brothers-in-law. I am a one attorney office and don't have an associate that I can send to the Interview. I understand that this has been rescheduled twice previously. I appreciate your flexibility and would appreciate one more rescheduling. I will make sure that I am available for the next appointment. Please let me know if you need any additional information.

To Whom It May Concern:

I hereby request an advance parole starting August 10, 2004. I have to travel with some frequency to conferences in foreign countries because of my profession: I am an assistant professor of computer science and engineering at the University of Notre Dame, IN. In particular, I travel to Europe, Canada, and Mexico. You will find a letter from my chairman confirming my appointment, and a copy of my contract with the University of Notre Dame.

I requested an advanced parole on Feb. 2, 2004. However, I did not receive the receipt or the travel document. They informed me that they had sent the travel document on March 29, 2004, but I never received it. Thus, I am requesting it again.

Sincerely,

Jesus A. Izaguirre, Ph.D.
Assistant Professor

P.S. I will appreciate if you can re-issue the travel document or in any way expedite it.
Thanks!
